

PRACTICAL DPO SUPPORT FOR UK ORGANISATIONS

Why organisations choose WDPS as their external DPO

Independent oversight. Senior legal expertise. Direct access to your DPO.

Choosing an external DPO is a decision about experience, judgement and trust. WDPS provides independent, solicitor-led oversight together with practical advice for senior management and operational teams.

01 Direct access to senior expertise

Led by Clara Westbrook. You'll work directly with an experienced data protection solicitors — not through layers of account management or junior advisers.

02 Consistent advice across your organisation

We support organisations with DPIAs, DSARs, personal data breaches, complaints, supplier arrangements, policies, training, records of processing and ICO engagement.

03 Independent judgement, informed by in-house experience

We'll assess risks objectively and challenge decisions where appropriate. Effective advice will also take account of the commercial and operational context.

04 Clear oversight for senior management

Regular reporting to bring together key risks, progress and priorities. Senior management receives a clear view of what requires attention, what is progressing and where further decisions or resources may be needed.

WHAT YOU GET FROM YOUR DPO

A NAMED POINT OF CONTACT

A formal appointment, independent oversight and a dedicated point of contact for your organisation.

INTERIM DPO COVER

Experienced support during recruitment, absence, organisational change or transition.

FLEXIBLE ONGOING SUPPORT

Involvement matched to your organisation's size, risk profile and internal resources.

MANAGEMENT REPORTING

Clear reporting on material risks, work completed, current priorities and areas requiring management attention.

Looking for an external DPO?

WDPS provides named, solicitor-led support, from formal appointment and interim cover to ongoing specialist advice.

Speak to us about
DPO support

07976 939 016 • info@wdps.co.uk

View the full DPO service

General guidance only; circumstances may require tailored advice.